Golden Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Dan L. Adams Sunday

130 Relatives and Friends Spend Day With Couple at Their Home Near Wayside

To honor Mr. and Mrs. Dan L. Adams on their 50th wedding anniversary 130 relatives and friends gathered at the Adams home at Wayside Sunday for a basket dinner.

Not only did this mark the wedding anniversary of the couple, but March 11, 1909 they arrived in Canyon.

Two long tables were placed in the 26 foot square dining room for the main dishes. These tables were centered with crystal bowls of golden snapdragons flanked by tall golden tapers in golden holders and a golden wedding salad flanked by white carnations and lilies. Five card tables held the dessert of cakes and pies. On another table the three tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, decorated with gold icing flowers on the white icing, was surrounded with yellow roses and ferns and set in front of tall gold tapers. Golden ducks held calendula to the side of the cake. At the corners of the table were the small napkins bearing Dan L. and Amanda, 1895-1945 in gold letters.

All of the guests assembled in the huge dining room for the invocation and to witness the 50 year bride cut the wedding cake. After this ceremony the dinner was served buffet style.

In the afternoon a program was given to honor the couple. Musical numbers were given by Mary Lee and Betty McGehee, Marlyn Small, Joan and Mary Jean Bullard, Dixie La Roe, Annabeth Rigsby, Wilbert and June Long, Jim and Leslie Adams. Several group songs were sung. Mrs. Floyd Adams read "That Old Sweetheart of Mine" for which she had drawn illustrations, the last of which was a portrait of Mrs. Adams, done in charcoal.

The many lovely gifts were on display in a bedroom.

Members of the family present included four of the five children: Floyd and his wife, Rolland, Robert and his wife and Miss Charlotte of Wayside; a brother of Mrs. Adams', J. W. McCrerey and Mrs. McCrerey of Canyon; 2 of the 14 grandchildren, Jim and Leslie Adams of Wayside; a nephew, Perry Walton of Tonganoxie, Kansas; 2 nieces, Mrs. Ruth Gidden and Mrs. Marvelle Long of Canyon.

Friends were from Wayside, Happy, Canyon, Hereford, Amarillo, and Tulia. The friends of the longest number of years were Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Kaul and sons of Hereford, who had been neighbors of the Adams in Kansas. J. W. McCrerey of Canyon had been a witness to the wedding.

Ration News

A list of all food ration stamps now good for consumer use—including the new red and blue stamps for March and an explanation of stamp invalidation—was released yesterday by OPA.

Red stamps Q5 through Z5 and A2 through J2, each good for 10 points, are now good for buying meats and fats. Stamps Q5, R5 and S5 will expire March 31. Likewise, E2 through J2, which became good March 4, will expire June 30. In other words, OPA pointed out, the stamps overlap with four sets valid during each rationing period. Each set is good for about four months.

The same system applies to blue stamps. Those now valid for buying processed foods are X5 through Z5 and A2 through S2. X5 through A2 will expire March 31.

A new set of blue and red stamps will become good on April 1.

Only one sugar stamp, No. 35 is now good. It came into use February 1 and will be good through June 2. Another sugar stamp will become good on May 1.

Lt. Jimmie Carr Gets Commission on Battle Field

LT. JIMMIE CARR

Lt. Jimmie Carr was recently promoted to that rank from the rank of Tech. Sgt., according to a letter from the Lieutenant to his father, Jim Carr.

Lieut. Carr has been with Co. F of the 142nd Inf. since the unit left Canyon as the National Guards. He has been overseas approximately 2 years, and has risen to his present rank through service on the field of battle. For some time he has served as platoon leader and will continue in that capacity.

While in France the Lieutenant has been wounded twice. The first wound was a head wound. As he was returning to the front after recovering from that wound, his unit stopped in a town that was being bombed. He and some of the other men went into a building for protection. A piece of shell which came through the door wounded Lieut. Carr in the shoulder and sent him back to the hospital. He is now back with his unit.

Victory Gardens Needed In '45

Fresh Vegetables Must Be Raised at Home According to Report From Washington

The War Food Administration says that we will need Victory gardens in 1945 just as much as in 1944. Marvin Jones has estimated that 40 per cent of the fresh vegetable supply in 1944 was produced by home gardeners. Had this 40% not been produced there would have been a critical food shortage before now. We have been able to feed our Armed Service men better than ever before besides helping our allies by supplementing their short food supplies. We have been able to do this because we very largely supplied our needs for fresh vegetables from Victory gardens and thus left the output of our commercial canneries free to go directly to the war effort.

The War Food Administration is again requesting that we grow home gardens in 1945 as we did in 1944 Claude R. Wickard, Secretary of Agriculture says, "Victory Gardens are going to be just as important this year as they were last year. Victory gardening is more than a patriotic hobby; it is a wartime necessity and a vital part of our food program. We should not forget that food is still a vital war weapon and a powerful peace force. That is why farm and city people alike are being asked to grow victory gardens again this year."

Small family sized gardens are not only a very fine insurance against a shortage of vegetables in our own food supply but will make more of our War-short commercially canned goods available to our war workers in over crowded cities where they do not have a chance to grow gardens. A good garden does not mean a big garden. Many enthusiastic gardeners undertake to grow too large an acreage and thus fail to properly care for all of their plantings.

Advice on gardening is free every where. Almost every one can tell you how to improve your garden. Publications on gardening are almost a dime a dozen. Sometimes it is about as much fun listening to the free advice on how to grow a garden as the gardening itself. Leaving out the fact that growing a garden is pleasant exercise it is one of the things we can do to insure a full food supply for the last year of war, we hope.

Great Magician Scheduled to Appear on 21st

Slicing a beautiful girl into four parts, shooting a live canary into a burning light bulb, causing a live pony to vanish in mid-air and many other startling mysteries!—can it be done? Is there any such thing as magic? Well, it is up to each individual to see this great and spectacular show for himself.

Under the sponsorship of the Lions Club, Birch, America's foremost magacian, with his company of assisting artists, will play an engagement in the auditorium of the Administration building, March 21.

As a feature attraction, Birch will escape from a box being made by John A. Gillis. Local citizens will be asked to nail the magician in the box.

Two programs will be given, afternoon and night, each being entirely different. This is one of the biggest schows ever brought to Canyon, and according to reports from other towns, it is attracting large attendance.

Heading the Birch staff of assistants is Mabel Sperry, hailed by critics as the world's greatest girl xylophonist. This master magician and company will present an evening of magic potpourri of thrills and fun.

Prisoner of Japs Radios Home of Life in Japan

This message came in over short wave from Tokyo on March 7, 1945. It was directed to Mrs. C. P. Robertson, Happy, Texas from her brother, Cpl. Boyce Springer who is a Prisoner of War in Tokyo.

The message is as follows: "Hello to all. Just to let you know I am still in good condition. Have had two operations at the same time. Am well pleased with the operations. I am gaining weight. But you know "Doc" is plenty tough. Kitty, I wonder how Preston is, also Ted. Hope things at home are all well. Edna, I had rather be here than where Mamma is. I have received one Red Cross package for Christmas and one personal package from Papa. Best regards to Patsy and lots of love to all. "Doc."

Mrs. Robertson thinks the sentence about his mother is to let the family know that he had rather be a prisoner than to be dead, as his mother died in 1938, and also that it is plenty tough to be a prisoner of the Japs.

His family has received any number of messages from various part of the United States from people who heard the message in addition to the notice from the War Department. The message was not given by Cpl. Springer but was read by a fellow prisoner.

WAR SAVINGS BONDS

THE SCORE ON MARCH 13th, 1945

Quota assigned to Randall County for month of March	$20,900.00
Total sales for period March 1, through March 13	14,475.00
Amount yet lacking on March quota	$ 6,425.00

Red Cross Drive Is Not Yet Over Top

House to House Canvass May Be Needed to End Up Drive By End of Month

Four thousand, five hundred forty-two dollars and forty-one cents of Randall county's Red Cross quota of six thousand dollars was reported to the St. Louis office this week. A small additional amount has been collected since the report was made. Randall county still lacks approximately $1400.

Since last week, the Highland community, with George Mason as its local War Fund chairman, has reported 100% community contribution to the Red Cross. Mr. Mason made a perfect report. Every blank in the form which is furnished by the National Red Cross was filled out. It showed the name, address, and amount contributed by each person, the total number and amount of checks, the total number and amount of currency, and a grand total of both, and was signed by the worker, Mr. Mason. This report becomes a part of the official record of the county War Fund drive.

Jowell community, which also made a 100% contribution, made its equally good report, through its chairman, O. M. Scott, last week.

The Canyon Public School and the Demonstration School of West Texas State both have 100% membership in the Junior Red Cross, and each Junior branch has also made several special contributions through the year.

The Public School faculty contributed 100%, and reported early in March, and the College faculty has already exceeded ifs contributions over last year.

In order that no Canyon resident will be denied the privilege of contributing, a house to house canvass will be made later in the month; the local workers will call at every house which does not have a 1945 sticker showing. Canyon residents are urged, however, to make their contributions at the City Hall, the First National Bank, or at W. J. Wooten's office. This will make the city-wide canvass less work, and will make it possible for Randall county to report its quota at an earlier date.

Rain Wednesday In Canyon Total of .42 of Inch

Rain fell in Canyon Wednesday morning which amounted to .42 of an inch.

Showers fell over most of the Panhandle, but the amount varied greatly.

This is the largest rain that has fallen in Canyon this year. It fell in a short period of time. The rain will be of great benefit to the wheat crop, although there is plenty of moisture generally over the county.

High temperature continued to prevail during the past week. Fruit trees have started to bloom, and it is generally conceded that the fruit crop will be killed since a late freeze will certainly come following all the warm weather of February and march.

Editorials

Again we hear from Dr. Homer P. Rainey, who was fired as president of the University of Texas. He flew to New York to make a couple of speeches. He blamed Texas politics for his fate, and intimated that he would carry his fight to the people of Texas next year as a candidate for Governor. Just how that would help him get his job back is rather mystifying. Rainey's friends demanded that Governor Stevenson fire all regents who opposed Rainey. A small thing, the constitution of Texas, stood in the way. The Governor still believes that the constitution should be observed, regardless of the fate of any citizen who seeks to avoid this document. Rainey might make an imposing candidate; he might be elected in 1946; he might make a good governor, and still again he might be a tremenduous flop. Observation of other men who have run for public office to justify their public acts is that they usually fail. The people are usually not interested in merely clearing the good name of some man who lost his job through some real or imaginary fault. But the political horizon of Texas indicates a brewing storm in 1946.

The Dallas Times-Herald has offered $5,000 for proof that academic freedom has been hampered in Texas. Deposed Homer P. Rainey says he will present the proof and get the money. We have asked a number of educators just what "academic freedom" really is. We would like an answer that a mere country newspaper man, together with the man of the street could understand. So far, the best answer comes from a teacher "Academic freedom means that the professor shall teach what he damned pleases, in the manner he pleases, with the idea that the student is free to combat the idea of said teacher—but if he wants a passing grade he will certainly agree with all the crack brained theories which may be presented." This may be putting the case a little too strong. But school men realize, more than anyone else, that the people are not ready to turn the schools, from the grades to the university, over to the extremists, who would pour out theories of their own, regardless of prevailing public thought and experience.

A bill was introduced in the legislature to stop the gasoline refund to farmers. The bill has been killed, which is entirely proper. Other measures are pending which seek to penalize farmers who violate the law and use tax-free gasoline in their cars. Such a bill should be passed. The farmers should get behind such a bill. There are hundreds of violations of tax free gasoline. No one denies this. The vast majority of the farmers are observing the law, and these should assist in punishing those who violate the benefits of the law. Unless this is done, the entire refund provision will be revoked. If this should be done, the honest farmers would suffer, just the same as the dishonest ones, who would make this repeal necessary. It's a tough proposition to turn in your neighbor whom you know to be disobeying the law, but gasoline tax refund is too important to the farmers of the state to further risk its repeal in order to protect those who violate its provisions.

A speaker in Canyon last week criticised the appointment of business men on the Board of Regents for the University of Texas. It was implied that business men knew nothing about the affairs of a great university, and that these should be left to college men. The News takes issue with such thought. The school system of Texas is big business. It is one of the biggest in the state, if not the largest. If the system is to be properly balanced and not become lopsided certainly men from various business and professional lines of the state should be consulted in the operation of this huge business. Perhaps mistakes have been made by groups of men who were serving for the time being on one of the boards of regents of our educational institutions. But if the domination of the school system should be turned over exclusively to the educators of the state, just what assurance do we have that worse mistakes would not result? Being a member of one particular political party, or of one church, or of one club, or of one profession does not guarantee that the man appointed to one of these boards shall be infallable. The fact that members of these boards are drawn from all sections of the state, from all business and professional lines, and from all churches, is the best balance wheel that the state may have. If some of our state educators would go back to their school duties and forget their ambitions to run the affairs of the public for awhile, perhaps this educational muddle in Texas might be more quickly settled.

The redistricting bill for the Texas House of Representatives has been killed. Representative Harley Sadler of Sweetwater did all in his power to pass the measure. The bill failed when east Texas voted solidly against the measure. Whereas there are representative districts in West and South Texas with 15,000 or more voters, most of the districts in East Texas have fewer than 5,000. The flimsy excuse was made that the legislature should now wait until after the 1950 census as the 1940 census showed such an unbalanced enumeration for certain parts of the state. That same excuse was made after the 1930 census. The constitution says that the state SHALL be redistricted after each federal census. It does not say that the legislature should wait until everyone gets firmly settled, and there is no more shifting of population.

Hitler has killed 10 million babies in Europe. All of these babies died of malnutrition in the occupied countries of Europe. They were starved to death in the plan of Hitler to weaken all neighboring countries to such an extent that the supermen of Germany should be forever superior. The food that should have gone to these babies went to the babies of Germany. While Germany was on the march expanding her holdings, Hitler demanded that more babies be born in the homeland in order to guarantee the future supremacy of the nation. No doubt thousands of these future German soldiers have been killed by allied bombing, but the fact still remains that under Hitler's plan, Germany still has the best stock on which to build a future army. You can see the necessity for the United Nations to camp in Germany until the Nazi influence has been stamped out—25 to 50 years from now.

Switzerland will no longer be able to carry water on both shoulders and profit by sales to the highest bidder. The crafty Swiss have played both ends against the middle in two world wars, managing to stay neutral. They see that Hitler is whipped, and that they must now take a stand, or be left out of peace negotiations. They are cutting loose from Germany, and will throw their commercial strength to the United Nations.

Jesse Jones is finally out. For 13 years he has been the most powerful financial genius in the world. During these years he has stayed on the job looking after the huge loans which he has made, without bothering to dabble in politics. That was his downfall. The President has leaned heavily on the judgment of Jesse Jones and allowed Jones to practically write some of the Presidents most effective campaign speeches which dealt with business. But Jones is not a back slapper. Making campaign speeches, and walking miles in political parades are not for a man of his type. Henry Wallace was kicked out of the Vice Presidence by the President, but was determined to hang on. He wanted his reward after the election. So Jesse Jones will return to his private affairs in order that the President may pay his political debts. Politics make queer combinations. Jesse Jones is probably wondering why in heck he spent those 13 years in Washington, just to be kicked out in the end.

A few weeks ago we heard Washington solemnly proclaim that there was no danger of food shortage; that all young farmers must be drafted into the armed forces. We are now told that the reason so many shortages are developing on the food front is due to actual shortage, rather than increased purchases of the armed forces. While we have always been fearful of this sudden impulse to drain the manpower from the farms, yet the fact remains that America is still the best fed nation in the world. Unless our food supply is wasted there is no danger of actual want on the home front.

Under pressure from the White House, the Senate has passed a man power bill. It is vastly different from the May bill which passed the House. There is a reason. Congress is not sold on manpower regulation. Congress believes that the administration is two years too late in demanding such a measure. The opinion is frankly expressed that the measure is designed as another excuse for bureaucrats to extend their holdings on the home front, and to make themselves certain of future jobs. It is unlikely that the two branches of Congress will agree on a bill. The plan is to kick the bill around waiting V-E Day.

The legislatures of a majority of the states are in session. Attempts are being made in practically every state to make trade unions responsible to the extent of publishing annual reports on their huge slush funds. Many states go so far as try to outlaw unions entirely. The states are attempting to do what Congress should have done long ago. But Congress is under the thumb of President Roosevelt who has catered to the unions. Two men are largely responsible for today's situation: John L. Lewis and James Petrillo. Both have openly defied the President and gotten away with it. While CIO and AFFL leaders may not have openly defied the administration, various leaders continue to call strikes, dubbed "unauthorized," but the government refuses to punish those who are responsible. The result will be a hodgepoge of state laws, that cannot be enforced to a very great extent.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

WASH SWEATERS THIS WAY

Proper washing of sweaters has a place in the conservation program. To insure sweaters against loss of softness and shape follow these procedures:

1. Before washing a sweater, always place it on a clean, heavy paper or a cloth and draw an outline so that you may return it to its original shape.
2. Use lukewarm temperatures for suds and for rinse waters. The water should feel neither hot nor cold. Changing temperatures causes shrinkage.
3. Dissolve a mild soap or soap flakes in the water. Do not rub soap directly on the garment.
4. White sweaters may be soaked safely, but not colors. Wash quickly by squeezing suds through and through fibers with a cupping motion of the hands. Do not life, rub or twist the garment. Rubbing mats and hardens woolens. Use a second suds for badly soiled garments.
5. Rinse at least three times in clear lukewarm water. In the last rinse water, add three or four drops of olive oil or mineral oil to a bowl of water to keep the wool soft.
6. To remove excess moisture press water from the sweater between cupped hands and then roll in a turkish towel and knead gently.
7. Unroll immediately and lay flat on paper or cloth to dry, easing sweater back to original outline. Separate contrasting colors with a dry towel to speed drying and prevent dye stains. Dry in an airy place of moderate temperature.

Common causes of shrinking, stretching and loss of softness are washing in too hot water and changing to cold water; the use of harsh, strong soap, rubbing, lifting by a small area, and drying in a hot or cold place.

A sweater should be folded rather than hung up when not in use.

No, sis, a second story man is not one who has another in case you don't believe the first.

Development and expansion of the departments of Agriculture, Home Economics and Manual Training were presented to the members of the Board of Regents, members of the Legislature and civic leaders of the Panhandle Monday by President J. A. Hill.

Prominent Democrats are talking about Herbert Hoover as the logical candidate for the party to run for president. William Jennings Bryan says no.

A revolution is on in Germany.

Hosea Foster underwent an operation in Amarillo.

Burleson Atkins was discharged from the army.

Rev. J. R. Sharp was installed as pastor of the Hereford Presbyterian Church. Prof. J. L. Duflot, lay leader, presided at the meeting.

The official census of Amarillo was announced as 15,494, an increase of 5,537 since 1910.

Notes From County H. D. Agent

This is Victory Garden Week in Texas. Again this year it is important that every one who can has a Victory Garden. We are advised that we can expect a 35% reduction in the amount of canned vegetables available on the shelves of grocery stores in 1945 compared to 1944.

The longer one can have fresh vegetables growing in the garden the shorter time he will have to depend on getting them from the stores or from the canned goods supply.

One of the few vegetables that does not have to be planted every year, and one that does extremely well here is asparagus. The person with an asparagus bed will also have fresh, green vegetables from his garden several weeks in advance of the other early vegetables that have to be planted each year.

Why not start an asparagus bed this year? True, it will not give you anything to eat this year as it should not be cut the first year, but if it is well established this spring and cared for during the summer, it can be used a short time next season and the following years—from 10 to 20—it can be harvested from the same bed.

Asparagus can be started from either seeds or the roots (or crowns as the roots are called). Plant early enough in the spring to get full advantage of the spring growing season. The rows are spaced from 4 to 6 feet apart, with the plants from 18 to 24 inches apart in the rows. The row itself is a furrow from 6 to 12 inches wide. The plans are placed in the bottom of this furrow. They are covered with two inches of soil and as the young shoots begin to grow, the soil is gradually pulled around them. Furrows may be 12 inches deep in light soils or about 8 inches deep in heavier soils. By the end of the first season, the furrows will be completely filled. After the trench or furrow is once filled, ordinary methods of cultivation are used to keep the soil loose and weeds under control. Irrigation at least every two weeks throughout the summer will be found to add a great deal to next year's asparagus crop.

The Mary Washington Variety and Martha Washington variety are among the best, growing large, tender spikes, and are resistant to rust.

BEES NEED BUMBERSHOOTS ?

YES ☐ NO ☐

They say that "bees never get caught in the rain." Maybe you claim you've seen different. But the changed natural light as a storm approaches is supposed to make bees get busy and fly home. They may be weather-wise or not. But you've simply got to be!—for Spring weather demands an oil change in the car you cannot replace, and Conoco N*th* motor oil will give your engine OIL-PLATING for extreme resistance to wear—

That's really how to hold down carbon, gum and sludge.

That's really how to keep up engine power.

That's really how to get good mileage from your oil and your gasoline.

The special life-giving quality of OIL-PLATING comes from patented Conoco N*th* oil's additional ingredient—a climax of notable research. This effort developed the magnet-like effect that makes metal attract OIL-PLATING—lubricant fastened square in the path of friction. And you can credit the same intensive research with making your OIL-PLATED engine defy corrosion.

Then both worst causes of wear are curbed. And you're safer from lay-ups—junking—walking! Surely Conoco N*th* is worth its slight extra cost. OIL-PLATE today. Continental Oil Company

MRS. PENNY COX HOSTESS TO EDGETOWN H. D. CLUB

"Asparagus is one vegetable that does not have to be planted every year. A well established bed will produce from ten to twenty years if well cared. Asparagus is ready to eat much earlier than other vegetables; therefore it has the effect of lengthening the vegetable growing season from two weeks to a month. Every one should have an asparagus bed," said Miss Patterson to the group of women at the Edgetown Home Demonstration Club which met with Mrs. Penny Cox on March 9.

Mrs. P. L. Walters was in charge of the business session.

"Now good digestion wait on appetite and health on both," was the quotation for the lesson.

History, the way most historians tell it, is a story of glory—but it is not all plumed knights and heroism and sacrifice; there is sometimes a sorry and sordid side, too.

Take for example the battle of San Jacinto. When Houston and his little army were falling back before the hosts of Santa Anna (prior to the battle, of course), the Texans camped on the premises of a well-to-do settler named Donahoe. The men needed wood for camp fires and they began to chop down some trees, whereupon Donahoe (with no gratitude for the service that these men were rendering to Texas, including him) complained to Houston.

The General called his soldiers together and said, "Under no circumstances shall you lay an axe to Mr. Donahoe's trees"—and that gentleman's breast swelled with joy. Houston continued, "Don't you see that Mr. Donahoe's rail fence will provide the fuel needed?"

So these men who, in a few days were to offer their blood and their lives for the freedom of Texas and, incidentally to make secure the land title of Mr. Donahoe, proceeded to use the fence rails for fuel.

We have a few individuals of the type and stripe of Donahoe in Texas today—who want the war fought without inconvenience to themselves.

The town oracle would back up every statement with an offer to bet. When he predicted the election of a certain candidate, another citizen expressed disagreement, whereupon the first man said, "I'll bet you a hundred dollars." The other replied, "I'll call you on one condition—that is, if I win you are to pay the $100 as, and when, I want it." This was agreed to—and Sir Oracle's candidate lost. But when the loser offered to pay off, the other said, "No—I don't want the money now."

Next day, the know-it-all was holding forth in the postoffice to a group waiting for the mail to be put up when the winner walked in and interrupted, "Bill, I want a dollar." The sum was paid and the bystanders, knowing the terms of the wager, laughed. A day or so later, Bill was again giving his views to a cluster when the winner broke in, "I want another dollar." This was paid over.

But when the third such occurrence took place, the loser said, "Here's all the rest of that money, you blankety-blank; I'm not going to have you come up to me 97 more times this way."

Cpl. and Mrs. John R. Pool from Medford, Oregon arrived Tuesday to visit with relatives and friends this week. Mrs. Pool will be remembered as Martha Sutton.

Graves Interests WT By Post War Plans for South

"Until education and freedom and religion are equal among all men, the second post war period is likely never to succeed," commented a man who is well-known, particularly in the South, John Temple Graves. Mr. Graves addressed the students and faculty members of West Texas State Friday afternoon, and gave an enlightening talk on rediscovering America.

As he began his address, the famous reporter stated that he could easily select one of two topics, either the war or the post-war world. Such things as scientific wonders, secret military equipment which will be converted into things for civilian use, the age of abundance and the world yet to be offered so broad a field, that Mr. Graves selected only a part—the important part that political and economic liberty must play in our future national life.

There can be no political liberty without economic liberty. The people of today must believe in the liberties or they have no American ideals. They must go in the American way of political and economic liberty, as it was because of these that the war job has been successful, declared the speaker.

The period after the war as a time people say they will return to normalcy is a period that must be forgotten. America can not return to a world as before the war, so in the post-war period of World War II it will be necessary for this generation to have its eyes open. It will be a gambling period because every enterprise will be forced to take risks and chances. The United States is a chance-taking country, as it has been from 1492, and will always be if it remains a democracy. Prayer for one more chance, a chance in which the youth and America must succeed was used as the close of Mr. Graves' address.

Mr. Graves, who has been a reporter for many years, is now a member of the Birmingham Age-Herald editorial staff. In a special forum held Friday afternoon at 4:30 he discussed for the group the various advantages and disadvantages of the field of journalism. He opened the forum by discussing the economic conditions of the South, including Texas which is commonly termed to be in the West at the present day. Then he was asked questions relating to subjects of interest in the newspaper world and regarding the conditions of the South.

For southern journalists, the newspaper man stressed seven points that should be remembered. These points were as a southerner, earn and spend your money in the south; the importance of the development of cheap cotton; modern science; chances for educational improvements; helping the Negro to get ahead on his side of the line; a free democratic spirit, and party freedom; and looking for the good in our own backyards, rather than that in someone elses'.

Mr. Graves conveyed his ideas in such a manner that the audiences wanted him to continue. His excellent examples and illustrations and his evading "ten cylinder" words made his talks, truly delightful.

WONDERFUL GASOLINES after the war? : : : Of course, because of today's greatly intensified program of research and production.

The headline above clearly and simply states the outstanding position achieved by Phillips in the wartime production of combat aviation fuels. It is more than a hint of what you can expect from Phillips in peacetime gasolines for postwar cars.

Phillips is also a major producer of butadiene for synthetic rubber. And high-octane fuel and butadiene are both synthetic chemicals : : : two of the limitless thousands of products which can be made by using petroleum and petroleum gases as a chemical raw material.

That is why we say, every time you see the Orange and Black Phillips 66 Shield, let it remind you that Phillips refineries : : : in addition to producing gasolines; lubricants; and fuel oils : : : are also gigantic chemical plants pouring out weapons for victory.

Swing Band For W. T. Organized By Glenn Truax

West Texas State College now has a Buffalo Swing Band, an organization that made its debut on Wednesday evening. Under the direction of Mr. Glenn Truax, the fourteen swingsters will play for various campus dances, with the Show Troupe and for other occasions, as representatives of the college.

Carlyn Wimberley, Bea Clark and Shirley Byars play the first, second and third violins. First alto saxophone is played by Anita Davis, second tenor by Gerald Smith, third alto by Charles Bell and fourth tenor by Mary Del Johnston.

Bill Miller is first chair trumpet player, and Marty Everhart and Sadie Ruth Hoskins occupy second and third chairs.

The Swing Band is completed by Charles McDonald playing trombone, Dorothy Fish, string bass, Tom Knighton, drums and Mary Hodges, piano.

Repertoire of the organization consists of popular tunes. At Buffalo Courts Wednesday evening most of the students seemed very enthusiastic about the excellent mood that the band creates.

Typical of the professional swing bands, the Buffalo Swing features all its sections—sometimes the trumpets, then the saxes, and woven in are violinists, trombone solos, bass solos and now and then the piano and drums swing out on some suitable rhythms.

When the Buffalo Show Troupe goes on the road soon, the Swing Band will be one of its mainstays. Arrangements to use the Swing Band may be made through Mr. Truax.

Some of these radio announcers should change their line and frankly say: "Due to conditions beyond our control, we present the program originally scheduled for this time."

Teacher Directs Class Program

Erwin Introduces Varied Numbers for Assembly

Under the direction of Mrs. Floyd Dunsworth, the seventh grade presented the assembly program last Friday.

Introduced by Donna Erwin, mistress of ceremonies, the opening number was presented by Bruce Winn and Albert Craig, who sang "Red River Valley."

In An Automobile

Next on the program was a car pantomime, "One Sunday Afternoon," with Marshall Walker as father; Lois Collins, mother; Jerry Ann Foster, Raby Wallen, Don Mickey, Lorna Cook and Jerry Harding as children.

"Two Walnuts" enacted by Harold Martin and Carroll Wray Dickerson was a negro playlet.

Spanish Dance

Martha Hales and Marion McReynolds danced a Spanish number called "Down Argentina Way," followed by "Pants," a reading by Bobby Jones.

Jolene Porter, Dana Lou Rice, Donna Dean Davis, Bobby Jean Ford, Joanna Haines and June Long presented a tumbling act with Donna Erwin accompanying them on the piano.

Marilynn Small played a cello solo, "America."

Class Sings

As the group sang "Onward Christian Soldiers," Robert O'Donald, Gibner Satterwhite, Billy Jo McCarter, Norris Root, Bobby Whitaker, Mary Elizabeth Jennings, Ruby Lee Bonds, Mary Ann Baker and Shirley Dixson, acting as servicemen and servicewomen, came marching down the aisle, led by the flagbearers, Carl Hair and Bill Lindsey.

Marilynn Small sang a solo part in "My Bonnie" with Donnell Ruthart acting as her "bonnie."

Songs Acted

Junior Goodman and Jolene Porter, Dennis Burrus and Mary Ruth Hill, and Delton Green and Sue Jennings enacted "Seeing Nellie Home."

Claudine Beavers, with her sweetheart, Clifford Prichard, had the solo part in "Comin' Thru the Rye."

Sound effects were created by Glenn Prater and Joe Abbott.

THINK FOR YOURSELF

Did you ever sit down to write an English theme, decide you couldn't think of a subject; then give up and wait until you had read Sally's paper to get ideas?

If you are guilty, you have probably never stopped to think of the habits such practices may cause you to form. If you're not careful, you'll find yourself depending on your classmates to choose your subjects for all your written work.

This certainly doesn't help you and it doesn't help your friends' dispositions.

Just remember that originality is more admirable than dependency.

—by Betty Ann Miller.

THANKS, STAFF

"Soaring Wings" staff members have put in many long hours of concentrated planning and work on this year's annual to get it in on schedule. Since this is the first school yearbook publication in several years, the staff has worked under added difficulty of inexperience.

Because our "Soaring Wings" will be to cherish and look at forever, we should be especially appreciative to this group for working long without laud and honor to add to our enjoyment of high school life.

Well, howdy, everybody! Here's your very best pal, ole Cactus Cal, on the loose again.

With the coming of spring there seems to be some changes made in our own CHS "Romeos and Juliets." For instance, Frances Gooch and James Meroney, Jean Prater and Charles Wright, and Martha Avent and ""Rusty" Davis were seen riding together after the Youth Center.

Gee, what fun, say Bonnie Drake and Dorothy Scott after seeing the show with Harley Hicks and John Gill on Thursday night.

That Don Standley really seems to be taking advantage of the short time he has left before entering the service—Mary Ann Bellah on Thursday, Betty Brown on Friday, and Sue Ann Moreman on Sunday. Not bad eh, boys!

What's this I hear about Claudine Beavers wearing Clifford Prichard's ring? Please, don't tell me that this has been going on right under my very own nose!

Say, from the looks of Bruce Albers' face, that senior girl must've really smacked him good-night after the senior party.

Shows that excite your girl friend so that she practically jumps into your lap are really "the berries." Aren't they, Leroy?

Janitor Accepts College Position

Steen Interrupts Eleven Year Custodian Service

"I have certainly enjoyed my work and all the students and teachers have been swell," said Mr. I. M. Steen, who has been janitor of Canyon Grade School for the past eleven years, and is now beginning work as janitor in the science building at West Texas State College.

Mr. Steen, aged 67, now living at 1004 3rd, has been a resident of Canyon forty-two years and has nine children, all of whom attended Canyon schools at some time.

Billy Abbott, Wilbert Long, and Earl Gene Peppard have taken Mr. Steen's place until a permanent janitor can be found.

In appreciation of his service, the grade school students and faculty presented Mr. Steen with a parting gift, an overstuffed base rocker.

Delegates Attend Special Meeting

Supt. J. B. Speer and Mrs. John Davis, sixth grade teacher, will meet in Amarillo tomorrow with the members of the House of Delegates of the Texas State Teachers Association.

Along with two teachers, Misses Novella Goodman and Helen White Moore, from West Texas State College, Supt. Speer and Mrs. Davis were elected from this county to meet with other such representatives from over the Panhandle.

Due to the O. D. T. ruling, District No. 9 previously decided that there would not be a district meeting in Amarillo this year.

Horrible Odors Tease Peaceful Corridors

Have you ever passed room 39 when the chemistry class is having a laboratory period? If you haven't, you really should drop by and visit during the fourth period.

The students put on long aprons, open locked drawers and doors in their tables, and take out beakers, test tubes, bunsen burners, flasks, and other equipment, and proceed to mix the strange and mystic aromas and odors which emerge from the doors of the chemistry laboratory.

Very dignified and intellectual students stand and look on knowingly for a certain period of time—no one will ever know how long—not even the students themselves.

Presently a stifling and nauseating odor rolls down the halls announcing that the object of all this conglomeration was something technically called hydrogen sulphide—better understood by outsiders as rotten eggs.

It is harder to fly a plane from east to west than from west to east. The earth, turning on its axis from west to east, drags along an envelope of atmosphere, which when added to the prevailing winds that also move in the same direction make it necessary for west-bound fliers to buck headwinds all the way along the westward route.

Sixty-four persons had crossed the Atlantic Ocean by air before Charles Lindberg made his solo flight. Several airplanes and the English dirigible, R-34, had made trips across.

Home to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bellah, on his first furlough since entering the service in October, 1944, was Pvt. J. C. Bellah who has been training at Camp Wheeler, Georgia. Pvt. Bellah reported to the P. O. E. at Ford Ord, California after being in Canyon March 3-11. He is a 1937 graduate of Canyon High.

Pfc. Eston Breitling, '39 graduate of CHS, is spending a ten-day furlough in Canyon with his wife, Mrs. Marie Breitling, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Breitling. He has been training at Camp Robinson, Arkansas, and will report to a P. O. E. in California soon.

Pfc. Frederick Jackson, son of Mrs. Emma Gene Jackson, mathematics teacher in CHS, is visiting his mother and sisters in Canyon. On December 23, 1944, Pfc. Jackson graduated from gunnery school at Buckingham Army Air Field, Tampa, Florida. He will leave Saturday for Drew Field, Tampa, where he will receive further training on a B-29.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS

To Joan O'Connor Cousins, Defendant, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable District Court of Randall County at the Court House thereof, in Canyon, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, the same being the 16th day of April A. D. 1945, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 22nd day of January A. D. 1945, in this cause, numbered 1840 on the docket of said court and styled Ralph P. Cousins, Plaintiff vs. Joan O'Connor, Defendant.

A brief statment of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit: Plaintiff sues the defendant for divorce, alleging they were married November 15, 1925, in the State of New York, and that they lived together as husband and wife until about January 14, 1937, when on account of cruel treatment of plaintiff by defendant, which such ill treatment was of such a nature as to render their living together insupportable, plaintiff was compelled to and did abandon the defendant, since which time the parties have lived separately and have not resumed the marital relationship. No children were born to said marriage and the parties adopted no children; and that there are no property rights to be adjusted and adjudicated between the parties; and plaintiff's prayer for judgment for divorce dissolving the bonds of matrimony between plaintiff and defendant and for such other relief plaintiff may be entitled to receive, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Canyon, Texas, this the 1st day of March, A. D. 1945.

(Seal) A. B. HOLT, Clerk,
District Court
1t4 Randall County, Texas.

Mayor Warren Gave Facts About Canyon and Future Plans

W. A. Warren, Mayor of Canyon, spoke at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday on conditions which exist in Canyon. Mr. Warren stated that while most facts about Canyon were good, there are some which are not altogether flattering, and conditions exist which must be corrected.

"We have reached the stage when all citizens must do some serious thinking and take definite actions in order to meet the opportunities which are offered the town," stated the speaker.

Canyon has $10,670 in all funds; owes $50,000 in bonds, $4,000 of which will be paid this month.

The city has bought street equipment to repair the paving as soon as men are available. A street brush has been bought to help keep the paving clean. This is not a street sweeper, but does adequate work. A tractor and mowing machine have been bought to keep weeds down on the vacant lots.

The value of street improvements and the water department amounts to $365,000.

Canyon has reached the point where citizens must invest more money in local institutions if we expect the town to grow after the war. Palo Duro Park, Buffalo Lake and the Museum will attract a big cash crop—probably as large as the wheat crop of the county. The number of people to come will increase year after year. This means that citizens must make improvements in order that Canyon be more attractive. More homes must be built; business houses improved.

Canyon can never make progress until a good hotel is built. It is up to local citizens to build the hotel.

The schools are the biggest asset of Canyon. But the public school needs more money for buildings, equipment and personnel.

Farm-to-market roads in Randall county will be of great assistance in building the farming interests. Extension of rural electrification and telephone connection with Canyon will make the farms more attractive.

Without West Texas State College, few citizens would want to continue living in Canyon. Canyon made a good investment in locating the college here. But it is now time that a bigger investment be made in the college by local citizens. It is simply a business proposition for every citizen of Canyon and Randall county to get behind the program of development which has been announced. The larger the attendance at West Texas State, the more money will be brought here to be spent among local institutions. No one can afford to overlook this opportunity in building the college.

Mayor Warren invited all citizens to bring their problems to the City Commission. Canyon is fortunate in so far that no radical groups have been developed among the citizens—extreme progressives and extreme conservatives. Most citizens are willing to take the middle ground and work for the development of Canyon. Such a course is very greatly needed at this time.

Visitors were: F. R. Barnes, J. Frances Brown, John Cowan, L. B. Dorch, N. S. Griggs, Geo. W. Hancock, Raymond Hollingsworth, E. Kancher, Earl O'Keefe, Arthur Osgood, W. W. Rusk, R. E. Wertz, E. C. Wagner, W. F. Patton, all of Amarillo; Rev. Joe Findley of Canyon.

One of the largest of the collectivized farms in Russia is the Gigant farm, comprising 550,000 acres. The director uses an air plane to get from one sector to another.

Approximately twenty-one times as much plant food is washed away by erosion yearly as is taken out of the soil by plants.

People did not discover that the potato was edible until about 1850. Before that time it was the general belief that they were poisonous.

The bush from which tea leaves are taken is an evergreen shrub, cultivated in China, and grows to a height of from three to five feet.

Cultivation of cotton first began in the South about 1621.
